Bill of Rights Seminar Starts This Morning in Auditorium

On Friday Mar. 12, a special seminar sponsored jointly by the Bill of Rights and Public Information Committee of The Missouri Bar in cooperation with MSC will be held in the college auditorium. The seminar is designed to increase understanding of the Bill of Rights as America's principal instrument for keeping a just balance between the interests of society and the interests of the individual citizen. In these lectures, the history, meaning and practical application of the constitutional guarantees will be presented. Attention will also be given to the legal processes through which the Bill of Rights have been interpreted and enforced. Pertinent issues will be used to translate abstract principles into living problems and to provide up-to-date information. It is expected that the lectures and discussion will provide insights and new tools with which teachers may examine questions involving the Bill of Rights.

The program will begin with the welcome by President Robert P. Foster at 9:30 a. m. followed by the introductory remarks by Mr. Joe Beavers of the Missouri Bar. The first lecture, "Protection of the Individual Against the State," by John Scurlock, professor of law, will encompass unreasonable search and seizure, double jeopardy, provision against self-incrimination, and due process of law provision of the fifth amendment.

The second lecture will be presented by Norman E. Anderson, the Attorney General of Missouri, and is entitled, "Guarantees for a Fair Trial." In his lecture Mr. Anderson will speak on the right to a trial by jury, the right to be informed of the nature of the accusation, the right to be confronted by witnesses, the compulsory process for obtaining witnesses for the defendant, the right to assistance of counsel, the prohibition against excessive bail, fine, cruel and unusual punishment, and the prohibition against suspending the writ of habeas corpus.

In the afternoon session the first lecture will be presented by Judge Andrew J. Higgins. Mr. Higgins' topic will be "First Amendment Rights." In his lecture he will cover the topics of freedom of speech, freedom of religion, and freedom of the press.

The concluding lecture will be presented by William P. Murphy, professor of law, and will be titled, "Equality Under Law." His lecture will cover the due process and equal protection provisions of the 14th and 15th amendments covering voting, equal education, school desegregation, housing, transportation, and employment.

An ostrich would make an ideal husband. He doesn't see much and will digest anything.

Tryouts for Ugly Man Variety Show Mar. 22

Tryouts for the Ugly Man's Variety Show will be Monday, Mar. 22, at 8 p. m. in the Horace Mann auditorium. Applications for the carnival may be made to Jim Carmichael or Alan Scott. Bill Rissler invites all interested students to come to the tryouts.

MSC Dramatists Prepare for 'Behold This Dreamer'

The cast has been chosen and rehearsals are underway for BEHOLD THIS DREAMER, a three-act comedy-satire to be presented by the drama department April 8 and 9.

In the role of Charley Turner, the "dreamer," is Phil Reser; his wife, Clara Turner, Suzanne Salle; her father, Mr. Strickler, manufacturer of "Strickly Strickler Brushes," Harold Webb; Mr. Harris, an insurance man, James Coleman; and Constance, a librarian, Carolyn Howard.

Among the interesting characters Charley Turner meets on his sojourn to a private sanitarium are: Melodie, unusual girl who has the melancholia and cries when it rains, played by Cheryl Reincke; Piggles, the unkempt and slovenly guard, Martin Schroeder; three "mad men," Dr. Ephraim Tanneyday, played by Robert Drew; One by One, Joe Maltzberger; D. D. D., an artist of sorts, Nick Erganian. The maid and butler parts are filled by Linda Brinton and Frank Knoke.

AKL to Present Professional Wrestlers

Professional wrestling sponsored by Alpha Kappa Lambda Fraternity will be held Thursday, Mar. 18, in Lamkin Gymnasium at 8:00 p. m. Highlighting the event will be Ronnie Reed, Central State Champion, vs. Tom Brown. In addition, Kay Noble vs. Jean Antone, tag team match between Ronnie Reed and Bob Shane vs. Black Snake Clark and Tom Brown, and Kay Noble and midget wrestler, Fuzzy Cupid vs. midget wrestler Sonny Boy Cassidy and Jean Antone. Tickets may be purchased on campus and in the den from any AKL. Student tickets are 75 cents.

Name Susan McConkey Co-ed of the Month

Miss Susan McConkey, a senior music major from Barnard, Missouri, has been chosen the Cardinal Key Co-ed for the month of March.

Susan has been cited for her outstanding service on the college yearbook, The Tower. She is presently serving as editor and was recently chosen by vote of the student body to be the 1965 Tower queen. Other recognitions include her selection to MSC's "Who's Who" for 1965 and her selection as runner-up in the 1964 Miss Maryville contest.

A member of Alpha Sigma Alpha social sorority, Susan has been active in band, madrigals, Tower choir, Music Educators National Conference, religious emphasis committee, and homecoming committee.

Student Wives to Present Style Show

"Fashions For an Easter Day" is the theme of the first annual Student Wives Style Show which will be March 17 at 8:00 in the College Auditorium.

Tickets will be available at 25c per person at Condon's Corner Drug, in the boys' and girls' dorms all day Tuesday, March 16, at the door, or from any member of Student Wives.

Models for the show include Mr. and Mrs. Rich Saemisch, Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Green, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Teale, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schultz. In addition, Nancy Hanson, Kathy Sayre, Sherry Collings, Ingrid Fry, Cheri Wood, Judi Sherlock, Gail Merritt and Robin Peterson will be modeling clothes donated by local clothing and shoe merchants. Children's clothing will also be modeled.

Over sixty door prizes have been donated by local merchants; the admission ticket will give each member of the audience a chance for one of the door prizes.

AWS Elects New Officers

The new officers of AWS are:

President — Jane Couch; 1st Vice President — De Ann Bowers; 2nd Vice President — Diane Pascal; Recording Secretary — Kay Elder; Corresponding Secretary — Carolyn Kading; Bearcub Chairman — Cheryl Cain; Historian — Joyce Cushing; Reporter — Judy Palumbo.

Instructor Experiments with Plants, Plans Specimen Garden for MSC

Greenhouses all seem to have a green thumb behind them.

This statement is true at the MSC greenhouse, where its keeper, William Treese, has the proverbial plant growing hand. As an instructor in the agriculture department at the college, he has many opportunities to test new theories about plant growth.

Recently he began a new experiment which he plans to be working on for some time. The project consists of using various colors of light to speed up or otherwise affect the growth of plants. Pink lights, called gro-lites, help in the actual growth of plants while blue lights aid in the blooming, Mr. Treese revealed.

Sunshine is used on sunny days while on dark days the colored lights are used for approximately 14 hours.

AWS to Sponsor Sadie Hawkins Week

"Dog Patch Hall" will be the theme of this year's Sadie Hawkins Week, March 15-19. It is sponsored by AWS.

Included in the festivities will be a Penny Night on Wednesday, Mar. 17. This time the girl will have to pay for each additional minute she stays out after regular closing hours.

Tickets for the dance, which will be held on Friday, Mar. 19, will go on sale Monday, Mar. 15. They will be sold through the AWS representatives of all three women's residence halls. Tickets will be one dollar per couple. The dance will be held from 9-1 in the Blue Room of the Student Union.

School dress or costumes will

Mr. Treese directs two classes of agriculture work. As another experiment, his students are planning to make a specimen plant garden. Anyone who is interested in this type of work may see the various processes that plants go through as they develop. The greenhouse itself consists mainly of vegetable plants and flowers which are used for decoration.

Before coming to Maryville, Mr. Treese was an agriculture teacher at Brookfield, Mo., High School. He has done plant experimentation for 15 years. He received his bachelor of science and master's degree at the University of Missouri.

Besides teaching about plants, he uses this work as his main hobby. Some of his friends think he has a magical touch with sick plants and that he might well be termed "Plant Doctor."

be appropriate for the dance, and prizes will be given for the best costumes. Refreshments will be served during the intermission.

SENIOR NOTICE

The Senior Class will hold its second meeting Monday, Mar. 15, at 12:30 noon in the college auditorium. Several items of business will be considered by the prospective graduates.

At the meeting last Monday, the class voted to leave a class gift and arranged for the collection of the money. A committee was appointed by Jim Campbell, president, to bring suggestions for the class gift to the meeting next week.

Letter to the Editor

College Administrator Relates Attendance Facts to You

Mr. Marvin Bell, Editor
 Northwest Missourian
 Campus

Dear Mr. Bell:

There seems to be widespread misunderstanding among students concerning the implementation of the policy concerning student absences. Underlying the confusion seems to be the issue of what constitutes a legitimate absence or what will be accepted as a valid and justifiable excuse and what will not. Complicating the problem further is the perennial misconception that the college endorses a "cut" policy which permits a certain number of "cuts" per class.

The facts in this issue are these:

- (1) The college does not have a policy on "cuts." Students are expected to attend class regularly. As a matter of fact, the college has the right to assess negative credit to students for failure to attend class regularly. Although negative credit is normally assessed only for absences before and after holidays, it can legally be assessed for any flagrant absenteeism. This is not a new policy; it has been on the "books" for a long time.
- (2) There are no excused absences. Students should be held accountable for classwork regardless of whether or not they are absent. All information regarding student absences is given as an explanation and not as an excuse.
- (3) Each faculty member has the prerogative of defining what constitutes a justifiable and valid reason for missing class. When absences are considered justifiable, the instructor should make himself available to help make up work that has been missed or permit a make-up examination when an exam has been missed. The college endorses a rather comprehensive extracurricular program which includes athletic trips, music activities, forensic activities, field trips, etc. When classes are missed through attendance at bona fide college sponsored activities, instructors normally should accept these as justifiable absences.
- (4) Most faculty members readily understand that extenuating circumstances will necessitate student absences on occasion. In years past when these circumstances related to medical problems, provisions were made for notifying the faculty through medical excuse forms from the Health Service. It is now the consensus of the faculty that when it becomes necessary to justify absence due to illness, the student should report this illness directly to the instructor. The point, of course, is that if the instructor refuses to accept illness as a justifiable reason for absenteeism, or if the instructor questions the integrity of the student, the student has very little recourse. I would strongly advise against the practice of soliciting excuses from local doctors. This does not help. If students cannot make a sound enough case for themselves in defense of an occasional absence through reasonably good attendance and an adequate record, then my best advice is to work harder in class and make an effort to improve attendance. The greatest majority of instructors are willing to accept absences as justified if absence privileges are not grossly exploited.
- (5) Students have the obligation of making known to the Dean of Administration Office the length and cause of prolonged absences (one week or more). The Dean's Office will send notification to the faculty concerning the absences. When possible, students should notify the Dean's Office prior to the period of absence.

If students have any questions concerning the position of the college concerning absences, please feel free to come to my office to discuss them.

Very Truly yours,
 Charles H. Thate
 Dean of Administration

Beethoven, Mozart Works in MSC Festival of Arts

The debut of the fifth annual Spring Festival of the Arts is slated for March 15 at MSC. The opening program will feature the St. Joseph Symphony and their interpretation of Symphony No. 3, "Eroica," by Beethoven. This program will be highlighted by solos from "Sinfonia Concertante" by Mozart presented by Mr. Louis Reiner, violinist, and Dr. Donald Sanford, violinist.

The second event to be featured will be on March 29. This will be a presentation of "The Beggar's Opera" by Theater Group 20 from London, England. This is an opera depicting 18th century London. There are twelve people in this group and they are presently on their first tour of this country. They will come to MSC from the University of California at Berkeley. At 2:00 of the same day they will work with the speech and drama students to demonstrate their acting techniques.

The final event of this Festival of the Arts will be April 13. This will be a lecture entitled "Poetry in the Classroom," by John Ciardi. Mr. Ciardi is a noted lecturer and is currently employed as the poetry editor for Saturday Review.

All of these programs will be presented at 8:15 p. m. in the college auditorium. Students of MSC will be admitted on their activity tickets.

Art Department to Feature Works of Arkansas Native

There will be an exhibition in the Fine Arts Department of MSC featuring the works of Willard Carpenter March 15 through April 14. Mr. Carpenter, whose work consists of wood block prints and water

To Present Senior Recital

Miss Jane LaMar will present her senior recital Tuesday, Mar. 16, at 8:15 p. m. in the Horace Mann auditorium. She will sing selections from Handel, Schubert, Schumann and several compositions from the Romantic and modern periods by French, English, and American composers. Miss Marjorie Mathewson will be the accompanist.

colors, will visit the campus March 19 to give demonstrations on various wood block techniques. Those interested are invited to attend.

A native of Arkansas, Mr. Carpenter taught in Arkansas and Arizona before becoming Assistant Professor of Art at Nebraska State College at Chadron. His work has been shown in both national and regional exhibitions, the most recent being at Springfield,

Liliana Hidalgo Tells About Chili

Miss Liliana Hidalgo from Antosagasta, Chili, is presently working on her Masters' Degree at MSC. She is attending MSC on a scholarship provided by the Institute of International Education of New York and the Rotary Club. She is an English major and hopes to return to Chili to teach in a University. While working toward an advanced degree, Miss Hidalgo is teaching in the Horace Mann Laboratory School. Miss Hidalgo obtained her undergraduate degree from a religious university in Chili. She explained that because of the low economic level of Chili, very few people are financially able to attend college. As a result, the classes are extremely small. In a Chilian university, there are no tests given during the year, all tests being given at the end of the school year. Miss Hidalgo feels that her experience with the American system of education has been well worth while. Since Chili is made up primarily of the Catholic faith, Miss Hidalgo feels that her most rewarding experience has been in meeting people from all religions.

Discontinue English Proficiency Exams

The English Proficiency Exam, which every MSC student has been required to pass before graduation, has been discontinued. Because many of the staff members felt that the examination was not accomplishing its intended purpose, a new system has been initiated.

At mid-semester, each instructor reports to the English department any students who he feels are deficient in English. The student must then take a combination essay and theory type examination. If he fails the exam, he is then required to enroll in English 15, which is a two hour course.

To Form Biology Society

A chapter of Beta Beta Biological Society is being formed at MSC. Requirements for membership are as follows: the study of biology must be a major interest; one must have 15 or more hours in biology with at least a 2.8 grade average; one must be a second semester sophomore (45 hours) with an overall grade average of 2.5. All interested students who can meet the requirements should see Mr. Kenneth W. Minter as soon as possible.

LET'S GO, BEARCATS . . . These MSC grapplers and Coach Jerry Landwer are pulling out all their combined skills this week as they battle in the strong NCAA College Division Tournament in Boulder, Colo. Ranking 8th in the entire nation, the fighting Bearcats took their 35th consecutive dual match win, closing the year with a 13-0 mark. The squad

Bearcat Grapplers to NCAA College Battle with Full Team

With the 1964-1965 wrestling season in the record books, Coach Jerry Landwer's MSC Bearcats now look to the NCAA College Division National Championship Tournament which will be held March 11, 12, and 13 in Boulder, Colo.

Landwer tentatively is planning to take a full squad to the tourney. Making the trek will be Allen Jensen, 115 pounds; Harvey Hallum, 123 pounds; Jerry Mason, 130 pounds; Arnie Thompson, 137 pounds; Ron "Jesse" James, 147 pounds; Lonnie Weiland, 157 pounds; Allen Packer, 167 pounds; and Bob Reece or Dan Gooding, 177-191 pounds.

The 'Cats ran their unbeaten streak in dual meets to 35 last week with an easy verdict over Graceland College of Lamoni, Ia.

Ron "Jesse" James is leading the Bearcats in the scoring race with 66 points. James has scored 17 wins consecutively, with 12 of them coming during the current campaign. Behind James in the scoring battle come Allen Packer, who has amassed 62, and Lonnie Weiland with 59. Packer has 25 straight wins to his credit, Weiland, 24.

Frosh Look Strong

Landwer cited four freshmen as having much potential for next season. George George, a state champion from Rhode Island, "has more potential than any other freshman wrestler since Packer," according to Landwer. Others named were Paul Stehman, 137 pounder; Clark Carnahan, 115 pounds, and Al Borkowski, 177 pounder.

Three seniors will graduate from the squad this spring. They are Larry Kilmer, 137 pounder, Allen Jensen, 123 pounds, and Weiland, team co-captain. Coach Landwer feels that Weiland's shoes will be toughest to fill, but optimistically states that "several fellows have the potential to fill in for Lonny." Gary Randall is first in line for the job. Randall, a sophomore this season, has been impressive throughout his college career, but has had to compete in Weiland's shadow for two years.

Landwer gives credit to Weiland and Packer for their inspirational influence on the rest of the matmen. "Lonny and Allen have helped keep the group enthused. They are both excellent leaders and are a driving force to the team."

The MSC maters have some schedule changes in front of them next season. A quadrangular meet pitting Ohio State, Illinois, Kansas State, and the Bearcats is in the making. An MIAA conference wrestling meet is being planned. Conference schools Maryville, Springfield, Cape Girardeau, and Warrensburg now have wrestling teams and Rolla and Kirksville have wrestling in the intramural ranks and may come up with varsity squads next season.

The 'Cats have won 74 meets and lost 9 while tying two during the last seven years. Coach Landwer's charges are currently ranked 8th in the nation and may move up some notches on the strength of their 22-5 showing against the strong Omaha crew. Dr. H. D. Peterson initially brought grappling to MSC in 1958.

Merit Scholarships

Dean Keorble has announced that Merit scholarship renewals and new applications should be completed and turned in to the Dean of Student's office by May 1 for consideration. The scholarship is based on scholastic achievement and financial need.
